SUNSET OVER MULLHOLLAND DRIVE

by Uli Gaulke

At the end of Mulholland Drive lies the Motion Picture & Television Fund. The spry seniors were once the backbone of the Dream Factory: actresses, producers, writers. They still hold on to their passion in writing labs and continue to shoot short movies. And they share their best personal and professional anecdotes with us.

A touching and light hearted documentary about the glamorous residents of a very special retirement home, including actress Connie Sawyer ("Dumb and Dumber", "When Harry Met Sally...") and three-time Emmy® Award nominated producer Joel Rogosin („The Virginian", "Ironside", "Magnum, P.I."). Producer Daniel Selznick ("Targets") also talks about the making of the legendary classic "American Graffiti".
