After resigning as mayor of the provincial village of Hindafing and despite his penchant for flops, failures and a string of bad luck, Alfons Zischl almost accidentally ends up becoming a representative in the Bavarian State Parliament. Yet even in this official position he quickly finds himself knee-deep in further political and personal fiascos...

A complex, Fargo-style look at the dark underbelly of our modern Western society: Character-driven, darkly comic and unexpectedly moving. The second season continues its pointed, satiric look at modern political and social issues that everyone can relate to.
