THE LAST EXECUTION

a film by Franziska Stünkel

1981: It was the last execution in the history of former East Germany. The story refers to the real-life character of an economist who had been recruited by the Stasi as an undercover informant and is accused of espionage.

Lars Eidinger ("Persian Lessons", "Never Look Away") stars as the main character, with Devid Striesow ("The Counterfeiters") as one of his colleagues. In order to render the historical atmosphere as realistically as possible, the film has been shot at several original locations, such as the former buildings of the State Security.

THE HIDDEN LIFE OF TREES

a film by Jorg Adolph

Are trees able to talk? Do they have a memory and a social life?

The whole world is talking about the environment, but frequently fails to listen to nature itself. One man has made it his mission to change this and has promptly reached millions of people. In his non-fiction bestseller "The Hidden Life of Trees", which has been published in over 40 countries and often appeared in the Top Ten listings, Peter Wohlleben opens our eyes to the hidden world of the forest and the "Wood Wide Web".
